

Simply put. Leave the Wisconsin No Call act alone. Do NOT change it so banks (and others) may call more than one time after ending business with them. We are pleased with our strong law and those who wish these calls need not sign up for the No Call list.